Data protection

Information you provide when applying for a school place will be entered into a computerised database. Your information is protected by the Data Protection Act 2018, which ensures it can only be used for defined purposes and may be passed only to specific people. The defined purposes are:

(i) Administering the admissions process as set out in this year's Bromley 'Applying for a school place' publication.

(ii) Preventing fraud or other criminal offences or to ensure the safety of a child

The people who may receive the information are:

a) The current school (if any)

b) The school to which the pupil is to be admitted

c) Other admission authorities, in order to ensure they can carry out their role in the coordinated admissions process

d) Any organisation legitimately investigating allegations of fraud, other criminal offences or child protection

e) Independent appeals panels should you decide to appeal the offer of a school place

Please return your fully completed form with all attachments and supporting documentation in the first instance to the Headteacher [Ellen Peyton admin@st-georgesbickley.bromley.sch.uk] and the Admissions authority (by email to mary.capon@aquinastrust.org).
