

KS2 Good Quality Reads:

One off books/classics

Author	Title	Genre
Charles and Mary Lamb	Tales from Shakespeare	Tells of the tales of Shakespeare in a short, child friendly version. You could read one, or all. Also useful if you're going to see the plays!
Catherine Storr	Marianne Dreams	Ghostly story of a child convalescing and how her dreams about another ill child become a dream story. Beautifully written.
Philippa Pearce	Tom's Midnight Garden	Tom is staying with elderly relatives due to illness. He is very bored. One night he hears the grandfather clock strike 13. He sets off to investigate and meets the ghost Hatty.
Franz Kafka	Metamorphosis	Gregor Samsor wakes up to find he has turned into a cockroach in his flat. It is actually about an analogy about a nervous breakdown but you possibly wouldn't know from reading it. Would probably need to discuss with an adult after. However it is a classic and worth attempting for advanced readers.
Judith Kerr	When Hitler stole Pink rabbit	Semi autobiographical from the author of Mog. Tells of her escape from Nazi Germany through Switzerland, France and finally London.
Anna Sewell	Black Beauty	Classic narrated by the horse itself. Sad but a great tale.

Eva Ibbotson	Journey to the river sea	Beautifully written. A girl goes to live with spoilt cousins in the Amazon.
Tony Robinson	Kings and Queens	Lovely book which tells, in child friendly language, the history of British Kings and Queens. From Alfred the Great to the bloody Plantagenets, crafty Tudors, to present day.
J.R. Tolkein	Lord of the Rings trilogy The Hobbit	A challenging read. Maybe read the Hobbit first? It's much shorter and simpler. However a classic-might appeal to boys as a great adventure story.
William Golding	Lord of the Flies	A classic. Children stranded on a desert island quickly become tribal.
