We recognise that our pupils bring with them a wide variety of behaviours influenced by life experiences outside school. We aim to respond to each case professionally, objectively and compassionately. We are sensitive when working with children and families with specific needs and experiences and we continuously seek ways to promote successful partnerships. The basis of differentiation will vary dependant on the needs of each case but we will take into account the views of parents and families, colleagues and external agencies together with any Statement of Special Educational Need or Education, Health and Care Plan. We will also ensure compliance with the trust's Equality Policy taking into account pupils with protected characteristics and making reasonable adjustments for pupils with a disability within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010. Both the school and trust respects the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) that requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between different people when carrying out their activities. By following the trust's Equality Policy, the school seeks to eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by such legislation.

*This policy should be read in conjunction with the Trust's Equality Policy.

Rationale

Educational establishments are key in helping to raise the educational standards and improving the life chances of children who are looked after, and in tackling the causes of social exclusion through careful planning, monitoring and evaluation. Schools can also provide a source of continuity and "normality" for children who may have been subject to emotional distress, abuse, and disruption. School can be the place where children maintain friendships and a place where they feel safe and can be themselves.

Therefore Aquinas Church of England Education Trust (the Trust) promotes the achievement of such vulnerable children, who may also face additional barriers because of their race, ethnicity, religion and beliefs, sexual orientation or because they are disabled. All Trust academies must have a policy for Children Looked After which sets out the approach to meeting the needs of such children and the procedures that will ensure participation in high quality learning and progress. Consequently, all academies must adopt the policy as set out at Appendix 1.

Legal Framework

The Children Act (1989) introduced changes in terminology. The term 'in care' now refers solely to children who are subject to Care Orders. Children who are cared for on a voluntary basis are 'accommodated' by the local authority. Both these groups are said to be 'looked after children' (LAC) or children in care or 'children looked after' (CLA) by the local authority. Accommodated children also include those in receipt of respite care – if it exceeds 20 days in one episode or over 120 days a year.

It is important not to confuse a young person's legal status with their living arrangements. For example, a child on a Care Order can be living with:

- Foster carers;
- In a children's home;
- In a residential school;
- With relatives, or
- Even with parents – under supervision of Children's Services.

Similarly, an 'accommodated' child can be living:

- In foster care;
- In a children's home, or
- In a residential school.

The Children and Families Act 2014 amends section 22 of the Children Act 1989 to require every local authority in England to appoint an officer employed by the authority, or another authority, to make sure that its duty to promote the educational achievement of its children looked after is properly discharged. This officer is referred to as the Virtual School Head (VSH). In the London Borough of Bromley, Helen Priest is the Virtual School Head.

Academies must:

- Ensure access to a balanced and broadly based education to all children looked after;
- Prioritise recording and improving the academic achievement of all children looked after;
- Prioritise a reduction in the number of exclusions and truancies for all children looked after;
- Ensure there is a designated teacher to advocate for the rights of children looked after;
- Develop systems of communications and protocols;
- Promote the attendance of looked children after;
- Ascertain who has parental responsibility for any child who is looked after;
- Ensure that pupils who have been previously looked after or are care leavers continue to be supported and monitored in relation to all the areas mentioned above.

Legal Framework

The term "looked after" was introduced by the Children Act 1989. This refers to a child who is either accommodated (whereby the local authority provides for the child on an agreed basis with the person who has parental responsibility) or is subject to a care order (whereby a court order grants shared parental responsibility to the local authority in order to protect and promote a child's welfare). Children in both instances could be living with foster carers, in a residential unit, in a residential school, with relatives, or even with parents on a part or full time basis.

Furthermore, the term "looked after", which is widely used in social services is synonymous with the term "in public care", which has been adopted by the DfES in their publication, "The Education of Young People in Public Care".

Objective

To promote the educational achievement and welfare of children looked after on the roll of the academy.

In support of this objective the academy will:

- Work alongside social workers to ensure that each child who is looked after has a current Personal Education Plan (PEP) in place;
- Provide a climate of acceptance and challenge negative stereotypes;
- Ensure all children who are looked after have the same opportunities to participate fully in the National Curriculum, careers guidance, extra-curricular activities, work experience, and enjoy the school experience fully in line with corporate parenting principles;
- Ensure discretion when addressing a child's care status and ensure there is sensitivity to the background of children who are looked after, especially surrounding work on family;
- Ensure the designated teacher is provided with regular training, and that they cascade this training to school staff as appropriate;
- Seek to review all school policies regularly in the light of the local authority's Social Inclusion guidance, Special Educational Needs Legislation, and joint Department for Education/ Department of Health guidance on The Education Of Children And Young People In Public Care (Archived);

Teachers – To ensure that the progress of pupils in public care are scrutinised and that ongoing progress is being made. Any concerns should be raised with the Designated Teacher as soon as possible.

Confidentiality

- The Head of School and/or the Designated Teacher have responsibility for informing all teaching staff who are in contact with the child looked after of the care status;
- In the absence of the usual class teacher, the Head of School should make sure that any supply teacher is aware that there is a child in public care in their class. [Where the absence is known in advance, the teacher writing their cover lesson should indicate this status on the Cover register with any appropriate notes – include if appropriate];
- As the academy's administrative office will be the initial contact of carers and other agencies with the academy, the academy's office staff will have knowledge of the pupil's care status;
- It is appropriate for support staff to have knowledge that the pupil is being looked after when directly involved on the teaching of the pupil;

provide information to inform the pupil's new Personal Education Plan, and ensure that communication systems are established early.

In the first PEP meeting, the academy will seek clarification from the social worker as to who requires school reports and who may give permission for school trips or other such activities. At this meeting any means of communication to aid the fluid exchange of information between statutory meetings will be discussed and agreed (such as a home/school book to detail any sudden significant changes in a child's circumstances.) – suggested wording but academy to include the operational practice]

School Trips and Special Activities

Given the delays that looked after children experience in getting parental consent for school trips and activities, we will aim to ensure that children looked after enjoy the same extra-curricular opportunities as other children by reserving placements for them on trips or on activities.

Involvement with Parents and other Agencies

The academy recognises that support from home greatly assists a pupil's educational progress and aims to involve parents, carers and those with parental responsibility in an open and positive manner. The academy will maintain regular communication with the primary carer and will ensure that copies of reports are forwarded to the Social Worker in addition to the foster carer and parents as appropriate.

The academy recognises that multi-agency working is crucial to the support and progress of children in public care. The academy will work closely with other agencies involved in supporting the achievements and welfare of the pupil, particularly the social worker and will exchange significant information to appropriate personnel between reviews when necessary.

Complaints

If a young person, parent or social worker wishes to complain about the provision or policy, they should in the first instance raise it with the Designated Teacher, who will try to resolve the situation. Thereafter the academy's complaints policy must be followed.
